Fun with lots of physical work

Housekeeper 📍 Lincoln, NH

Get your work done, show up and be kind and you have no issues! Stay put of the drama...as with any place there is drama between housekeepers and lots of it but if you dont partake you never have any issues with people. Its a fun place to be if you can get along with people.

Pros ✓

Management, employee luncheon, co workers

Cons ✖

Ita a very physically demanding job if you're doing it correctly

Fun place to work

Front Desk Agent Lincoln, NH

The staff and guests are caring and management is always there to help if you need anything. If you like a fun place to work with good benefits this is the place for you.

It's awful

Front Desk Agent  Lincoln, NH

Don't work here! Management doesn't care! They don't care about you unless you're part of their "group"! They find excuses for how you were treated wrong and try to spin it onto you! They could have the worst human being in their friend group that treats people horribly and they don't care!! They chose their friends over you!! If you have something going on and they tell you to go home and assure you multiple times that it is fine, DONT GO HOME, They will write you up the next day for it! I wanna say that it's high school all over again but it's worse than that! Management will tell you can talk to them and vent but than will go around telling people! If you get in trouble for something and another person isn't that's because again they're apart of the group!! They got family members working together and friends!! It's all a popularity contest! If you go to them for help be prepared to have a lot of attitude!! Employees are always yelling and arguing with each other, as well as management. They couldn't care if a guest is there or not. This job would be a great job if you had management that cared and other employees that would work but because they don't they will break you down and break you down fast! If you can get into their group you don't have to worry about any of this!! If you go to work for this place I wish you the best of luck!

Pros

Some of the guest

Poor Management

Front Desk Agent  Lincoln, NH

Great benefits if you don't mind working with the school management who favors friends over good workers. They don't listen to complaints and just brush them under the rug. If you can work in this type of work place then maybe the benefits will out weigh the cons.

Don't work here

Housekeeper  Lincoln, NH

Don't work here ever. Work literally anywhere else. Management does not care about anyone but themselves or their friends and won't listen to complaints of any kind. Workload is too much and they never help. They don't care about their employees and think they're all replaceable but sometimes can't manage.

High school

Front Desk Agent/Guest Services  Lincoln, NH

There is a better management seems very unprofessional and place is filled with negativity and negativity feels like high school all over again they don't care how hard you work.

Overall good department to work in

Front Desk Associate  Lincoln, NH

Worked at the front desk. When busy, definitely not for the weak minded. Eventually became second nature to be answering multiple phone calls, entering a reservation in the computer, and helping someone in front of you with a problem, all at the same time though. Current desk manager is a really funny.

Workplace

Laundry Worker  Lincoln, NH

The company is not bad to work for but the management is awful. They don't treat you well. The workload can be heavy when you are working alone and they don't care about it.
